GUARANTEE

Guarantee

- 4A Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute an amount not exceeding $10 to the property of the Company in the event of its being wound up while the member is a member or within 1 year after the member ceases to be a member, if required for payment:
- (a) of the debts and liabilities of the Company (contracted before the member ceases to be a member);
  - (b) of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
  - (c) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

MEMBERSHIP

---

First Members

5. The Subscribers to this Constitution shall be the first Members of the Company and:–
- (1) they must consent in writing to become a Member of the Company;
  - (2) they shall not be required to apply for membership;
  - (3) they shall be admitted as Voting Members.

Eligibility

6. (1) Any natural person or corporation (incorporated or otherwise) committed to the objects of the Company may become a Member of the Company provided all eligibility requirements and other membership qualifications as set out in the By-Laws or elsewhere have been met.
- (2) The provisions of Article 6(1) shall not apply to the Subscribers to the Company.

Application

7. Any Person may apply for membership of the Company by submitting to the Secretary:—
- (1) an Application for Membership;
  - (2) intentionally deleted;
  - (3) an agreement in writing to be bound by the Constitution of the Company; and
  - (4) payment of the entrance fee and the annual subscription for the first year, where relevant.

Admission

8. (1) All Applications for Membership shall be submitted by the Secretary to the Board which shall determine each Application for Membership. The Board shall be entitled to use any criteria for determining whether to accept or reject an Application for Membership.
- (2) If the Board determines to accept an Applicant's Application for Membership, the Secretary shall, as soon as possible:—
- (a) enter the name of the Applicant in the Register;
  - (b) notify the Applicant of the Board's determination.
- (3) An Applicant becomes a Member and is entitled to exercise the rights of membership when the name of the Applicant is entered in the Register.
- (4) The Board may decline any Application for Membership and is not bound to give reasons why the Application for Membership was not accepted.
- (5) The Secretary shall, as soon as possible after the Board has declined an Applicant's Application for Membership:—
- (a) notify the Applicant of the Board's determination;
  - (b) return to the Applicant the entrance fee and annual subscription paid by the Applicant, if any.

Classes of Membership

9. (1) By special resolution, the Company may create different classes of membership and may confer on each such newly created class of membership such rights, privileges or benefits as the Company sees fit.
- (2) Where different classes of membership have been created, the Directors may, on accepting an Applicant's Application for Membership, admit an Applicant to a class of membership which appears appropriate to the Directors.

Membership Fees

10. The Board shall determine:—
- (1) the quantum; and

- (2) the due date for payment, of the entrance fees, the annual subscription and any other amount which an Applicant or a Member is required to pay to be admitted or remain as a Financial Member.

10A. If:

- (1) the annual subscription of a member remains unpaid for 2 months after it becomes payable; and
- (2) a notice of default is given to the member following a resolution of the directors to do this;

the member ceases to be entitled to any of the rights or privileges of membership but these may be reinstated on payment of all arrears if the directors see fit

Register of Members

11. (1) The Company Secretary will maintain a Register at the registered office of the Company.
- (2) When an Applicant has been accepted for membership the Secretary will cause the Applicant's name to be entered in the Register, thereupon conferring membership.
12. (1) The Service Address of a Member in the Register will be the address nominated by the Member for the purpose of receiving notices from the Company and may be:—
- (a) a residential address;
- (b) a postal address;
- (c) a business address;
- (d) a facsimile number;
- (e) an email address.
- (2) The Company shall use its best endeavours to use the Service Address nominated by each Member for the purpose of delivering notices.
- (3) Each Member must notify the Secretary within fourteen (14) days of any change of name or Service Address of the Member and each such change shall be recorded in the Register.

Rights of Members

13. The rights of any Member will not be transferable.

Liability of Members

14. The liability of a Member is limited to the extent of the Member's guarantee. This liability shall continue for the duration of the membership of a Member and for a period of twelve (12) months following the cessation of membership of a Member.

Cessation of Membership

15. Membership of the Company will terminate upon:—

- (1) the Company Secretary receiving from a Member a letter of resignation;
- (2) a Member ceasing to satisfy all eligibility requirements and other membership qualifications as set out in the By-Laws or elsewhere;
- (3) a Member being expelled or suspended in accordance with this Constitution; or
- (4) death of a Member.

Consequences of Loss of Membership

16. If any member ceases to be a member under this constitution, the member remains liable to pay to the Company for any money which, at the time of the member ceasing to be a member, the member owes to the Company on any account and for any sum not exceeding $10 for which the member is liable under Article 8 of this constitution.

17. Intentionally deleted.

18. Intentionally deleted.

Allegation of Charge

19. (1) Any allegation that might lead to the discipline of a Member shall be lodged with the Secretary in writing, signed by any Member and detailing the circumstance which gave rise to such allegation.
- (2) If the Secretary considers the allegation to be such as may warrant the discipline of that Member, the Secretary shall issue a Notice of Allegation to the Member informing the Member:-
  - (a) of the allegation; and
  - (b) the date at which the Board of Directors will consider the allegation, such Board meeting is to be held not less than twenty eight (28) days after the date of the Notice of Allegation; and
  - (c) inviting the Member to submit a written explanation to defend the allegation; and
  - (c) inviting the Member to present himself to the Board to answer any questions which the Board may ask of him and to present his defence of the allegation.
- (3) If the Member chooses to defend the allegation, the Member must submit a written explanation which must be received by the Secretary no less than two (2) days prior to the Board meeting at which the allegation is to be heard. Such explanation shall be tabled at the Board meeting at which the allegation is to be heard and reasonable opportunity must be given for the Member to appear before the Board of Directors to answer the allegation.
- (4) The Board may:-
  - (a) by majority vote, expel; or

- (b) by a majority vote suspend or otherwise discipline

any Member of the Company for conduct inconsistent with any by-law, regulation or any provision contained in this Constitution or which in the opinion of the Board is unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the interests of the Company.

- (5) Any Member so disciplined, fined, suspended or expelled shall be notified in writing by the Secretary within twenty one (21) days of such penalty being imposed.
- (6) Any Member who may be disciplined, fined, suspended or expelled shall have the right to appeal against such penalty.

Appeal Against Discipline

20. (1) Any Member who has been suspended, fined or expelled (a "Disciplined Member") shall have the right to appeal against the decision of the Board at a general meeting of the Members of the Company by giving notice of his or her or its intention to appeal. Such notice must be received by the Secretary within one (1) month of the deemed date of receipt of the notice referred to in Article 19(5). Such notice of appeal shall operate as a stay of implementation of any decision.
- (2) The Board shall be required to convene a general meeting of the Members of the Company within three (3) months of the date of receipt of the notice referred to in Article 19(5) and shall give no less than one (1) month's notice of the date of that general meeting to the Disciplined Member.
- (3) The Disciplined Member shall be given the opportunity of being heard at the general meeting with or without a solicitor or counsel.
- (4) The Disciplined Member may be represented by another Member.
- (5) A solicitor, with or without counsel, may be engaged by the Company to assist the Company at such a meeting.
- (6) The Company shall be under no obligation to disclose to the Disciplined Member or any other Member the source of any information giving rise to the discipline.
- (7) The Company shall, by a two-thirds majority, decide upon the appeal.
- (8) A Disciplined Member whose appeal is unsuccessful shall pay to the Company all or any costs or expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in connection with the hearing of the appeal as the Board may determine.

Consequences of expulsion or suspension

21. Any Member expelled from the Company may at any time apply to the Board to be readmitted as a Member.
22. No person may be a Director of the Company following expulsion or during suspension unless such a person is subsequently readmitted as a Member.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Convening General Meetings

23. (1) Any Director may whenever he thinks fit convene a meeting of the Company's Members.
- (2) The Directors must convene a meeting of the Company's Members on the request of Members in accordance with section 249D of the Act. The Members may convene a meeting of the Company's Members in accordance with sections 249E and 249F of the Act.

Notice of General Meetings

24. A notice of a meeting of the Company's Members shall specify:-
- (1) the place, the day and the time of the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
- (2) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
- (3) such other information as is required by section 249L of the Act.
25. The Company may hold a meeting of its Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.
26. Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to agreements for shorter notice, at least twenty one (21) days notice must be given of a meeting of the Company's Members.
27. (1) Notice of every meeting of the Company's Members shall be given in the manner authorised by Article 87 to:-
- (a) every Member and to every Director; and
- (b) the auditor for the time being of the Company.
- (2) No other person is entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Company's Members.

Annual General Meeting

28. (1) Subject to the Act, a general meeting shall be held at least once in every calendar year and within the period of five (5) months after the end of the financial year at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors. The abovementioned general meeting shall be called the "annual general meeting" and all other meetings of the Company shall be called "general meetings".
- (2) The business of the Annual General Meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to on the notice of meeting:
- (a) the consideration of the Annual Financial Report, Directors' Report and Auditor's Report;
- (b) the election of Directors;
- (c) the appointment of the auditor;

- (d) the fixing of the auditor's remuneration.

Chairman of General Meetings

29. (1) The Directors may elect an individual to chair a meeting of the Company's Members.
- (2) Where a meeting of the Company's Members is held and:-
- (a) a Chairman has not been elected as provided by Article 29(1); or
  - (b) the person so elected is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act for all or part of the meeting,
- the Members present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting (or part of it).

Quorum For General Meetings

30. (1) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Company's Members unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (2) The quorum for a meeting of the Company's Members is 10 persons entitled to vote and the quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.
- (3) For the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present, a person attending as a proxy, or as representing a body corporate that is a Member, shall be deemed to be a Member.
- (4) If the Company has only one Member, that Member may pass a resolution by the Member recording it and signing the record.

Adjournment of General Meetings

31. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting:-
- (1) where the meeting was convened upon the request of Members - the meeting shall be dissolved; or
  - (2) in any other case:-
    - (a) the meeting stands adjourned to such day, and at such time and place, as the Directors determine or, if no determination is made by the Directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
    - (b) if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, then the meeting shall be dissolved.
32. (1) The Chairman shall adjourn a meeting of the Company's Members from time to time and from place to place if the Members present with a majority of votes that may be cast at that meeting agree or direct the Chairman to do so. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

- (2) When a meeting of the Company's Members is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.
- (3) Except as provided by Article 32(2), it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting at General Meetings

33. (1) At any meeting of the Company's Members a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is (before a vote is taken or before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:-
  - (a) by the Chairman;
  - (b) by at least three (3) Members (present in person or by proxy or representative) entitled to vote on the resolution;
  - (c) by a Member or Members (present in person or by proxy or representative) with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.
- (3) If a secret ballot is duly demanded:-
  - (a) by the Chairman; or
  - (b) by not less than one-third of the persons present at the meeting in question, such number being determined by including persons who are personally present, and persons who are represented by proxy or by corporate representative, it shall be taken in such manner and, subject to Article 33(4), either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairman directs, and the result of the secret ballot shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the secret ballot was demanded.

- (4) A secret ballot demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately.
34. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a secret ballot, the Chairman of the meeting of the Company's Members at which the show of hands takes place or at which the secret ballot is demanded has a casting vote in addition to any vote the Chairman may have in the capacity as a Member.
35. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Member:-
  - (1) at meetings of the Company's Members or classes of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney or representative; and
  - (2) on a show of hands every person present who is a Member or a representative of a Member has one vote, and on a secret ballot every person present in person or by proxy or attorney or representative has one vote.
36. If the membership is held jointly and more than one such joint Member votes, only the vote of the Member whose name appears first in the Register counts.

37. If a Member is of unsound mind or is a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health, his committee or trustee or such other person as properly has the management of his estate may exercise any rights of the Member in relation to a meeting of the Company's Members as if the committee, trustee or other person were the Member.
38. A Member is not entitled to vote at a meeting of the Company's Members unless all sums presently payable by him in respect of the Company have been paid.
39. (1) An objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.
- (2) Any such objection shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting of the Company's Members, whose decision is final.
- (3) A vote not disallowed pursuant to such an objection is valid for all purposes.

Proxies

40. A Member of the Company who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the Company's Members may appoint a person (whether or not a Member of the Company) as the Member's proxy to attend and vote for the Member at the meeting.
41. (1) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal or executed in accordance with the Act or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised.
- (2) An instrument appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument of proxy so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote in the resolution except as specified in the instrument.
- (3) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a secret ballot.
42. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in a form that is similar as the circumstances allow to the form shown in Schedule A hereof.
43. An instrument appointing a proxy shall not be treated as valid unless the instrument, and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, is or are deposited, not less than forty eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, at the registered office of the Company or at such other place in Australia as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting.
44. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or of a power of attorney is valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal, the revocation of the instrument (or of the authority under which the instrument was executed) or of the power, if no intimation in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind or revocation before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.

DIRECTORS

Qualification of Directors

45. Intentionally deleted.
46. It shall not be necessary for a Director to be a Member of the Company by way of qualification and a Director who is not a Member of the Company shall be entitled to receive notices of and attend and speak at meetings of the Company's Members.

Minimum Number of Directors

47. The number of the Directors shall be not less than three (3), or more than twelve (12).
48. The Company may from time to time by resolution passed at a general meeting fix the number of Directors or increase or reduce the number of Directors (but so that the number shall be not less than three) and may also determine in what rotation (if any) the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

Appointment of Directors

49. The first Directors shall be appointed in writing by the person(s) specified in the application for the Company's registration under the Act as a person who consents to become a Member of the Company.
50. Until he resigns, dies or is removed from or otherwise vacates office as provided in this Constitution every Director shall continue to hold office.
51.
  - (1) Subject to Article 46(1) but notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution the Directors may appoint as Directors up to two (2) further people chosen for their particular skills.
  - (2) The appointment of any Director under Article 51(1) will be deemed as filling a casual vacancy or vacancies on the Board. As such, any Director appointed under Article 51(1) holds office until the termination of the next annual general meeting of the Company and is then eligible for re-election.
52. The Company may from time to time by resolution passed at a general meeting appoint a person to be a Director of the Company. That resolution may specify the period during which the Director is to hold office and if it does so specify the Director will cease to hold office at the expiration of that period but will be eligible for reappointment. If the members' resolution does not specify the term of the Director's appointment, the Director will hold office in accordance with Article 52A.
- 52A.
  - (1) At each annual general meeting of the Company those directors who have held office for at least 3 years must retire from office. However, if the number of directors to retire under this Article exceeds 50% of the number of directors, then the number who must retire is limited to 50% and, in that instance, the provisions of Article 52A(2) apply.
  - (2) The director or directors to retire at an annual general meeting are those who have been longest in office since their election.
  - (3) As between or among 2 or more directors who became directors on the same day, the director or directors to retire are determined by lot unless they otherwise agree between or among themselves.
  - (4) A retiring director is eligible for re-election without the necessity of giving any previous notice of his or her intention to submit himself or herself for re-election.

- (5) Unless the directors decide to reduce the number of directors in office the Company at any annual general meeting at which any director retires may fill the vacated office by re-electing the retiring director or electing some other qualified person.
  - (6) If at the annual general meeting the vacated office is not filled, the retiring director, if willing and not disqualified, must be treated as re-elected unless the directors decide to reduce the number of directors in office or a resolution for the re-election of that director is put and lost.
  - (7) Where 2 or more directors are to be appointed, each of the directors must be appointed by a separate resolution unless:
    - (a) the members present have first passed a resolution that the appointments may be voted on together; and
    - (b) no votes were cast against that resolution.
  - (8) A director who has held office for a continuous period of 10 years or more may only be re-appointed or re-elected by a special resolution of members.

Appointment of a Managing Director

53. (1) The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their number to the office of Managing Director for such period and on such terms as they think fit. The term of such appointment shall be two years, and, subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in a particular case, the Directors may revoke any such appointment.
- (2) Any such appointment of a Managing Director automatically terminates if the appointee ceases from any cause to be a Director.
- (3) The Directors may, upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions and as they think fit, confer upon a Managing Director any of the powers exercisable by them.
- (4) Any powers so conferred may be concurrent with, or be to the exclusion of, the powers of the Directors.
- (5) The Directors may at any time withdraw or vary any of the powers so conferred on a Managing Director.

Appointment of an Alternate Director

54. (1) A Director may, with the approval of the other Directors, appoint a person to be an Alternate Director in his or her place during such period as he or she thinks fit.
- (2) An Alternate Director is entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and, if the appointor is not present at such a meeting, is entitled to attend and vote in his or her stead.
- (3) An Alternate Director may exercise any powers that the appointor may exercise and the exercise of any such power by the Alternate Director shall be deemed to be the exercise of the power by the appointor.
- (4) An Alternate Director is not required to have any membership qualifications.

- (5) The appointment of an Alternate Director may be terminated at any time by the appointor notwithstanding that the period of the appointment of the Alternate Director has not expired, and terminates in any event if the appointor ceases to hold office as a Director.
- (6) An appointment, or the termination of an appointment, of an Alternate Director shall be effected by a notice in writing signed by the Director who makes or made the appointment and served on the Company.

Rectifying a Casual Vacancy of Directors

55. In the event of a vacancy or vacancies in the office of a Director or offices of Directors, the remaining Directors may act but, if the number of remaining Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of Directors, they may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to a number sufficient to constitute such a quorum or of convening a meeting of the Company's Members for that purpose.

Procedure for election of Directors

56 (1) Nomination for election

- (a) Each candidate for election as a director must:
  - (i) be proposed by an ordinary member or the nominated representative of an ordinary corporate member; and
  - (ii) be seconded by another ordinary member or the nominated representative of another ordinary corporate member;
  - (iii) both of which members must be current financial members of the Company at the time of nomination.
- (b) No ordinary member or nominated representative of an ordinary member may propose more than 1 person as a candidate but may second more than 1 nomination.
- (c) A nomination of a candidate for election must:
  - (i) be in writing;
  - (ii) be signed by the candidate; and
  - (iii) be signed by the proposer and seconder.
- (d) A nomination of a candidate for election must be received at the registered office of the Company not later than 5pm on the day which is 14 days prior to the annual general meeting at which the candidate seeks election.
- (e) The board must review all nominations in relation to the organisations Board skills and representation matrix and propose a list of candidates names for election to the members at the Annual General Meeting. A list of the candidates' names in alphabetical order together with the proposers' and seconders' names must be sent to members with the notice of the annual general meeting.

(2) Election procedure – directors

- (a) If the number of candidates for election as directors is equal to or less than the number of vacancies on the board, the chair of the annual general meeting must declare those candidates to be duly elected as directors.
  - (b) If the number of candidates for election as directors is greater than the number of vacancies on the board, a ballot must be held for the election of the candidates.
  - (c) If a ballot is required, balloting lists must be prepared listing the names of the candidates only in alphabetical order.
  - (d) At the annual general meeting each person entitled to vote and voting on the ballot may vote for a number of candidates equal to the number of vacancies.
  - (e) The candidates receiving the greatest number of votes cast in their favour must be declared by the chair of the meeting to be elected as directors.
  - (f) If an equality of votes would otherwise prevent the successful candidate for a vacancy from being determined, the chair, prior to the declaration of the result of the ballot, in addition to his or her deliberative vote (if any) is entitled to a casting vote, except that if the chair:
    - (i) does not exercise a casting vote; or
    - (ii) is one of the candidates who received the same number of votes;
 then the names of the candidates who received the same number of votes must be put to a further ballot immediately.
  - (g) There is not a vacancy for the purpose of this Article 56 because the number of directors is less than the maximum allowed under Article 48. There is a vacancy only if the number of directors is less than the number elected at the previous annual general meeting (adjusted for any increase under Article 48).

(3) Time appointment or retirement takes effect

- (a) Directors who are appointed at a meeting of members take office immediately after the end of the meeting.
- (b) Directors who retire at a meeting of members continue to hold office until the end of the meeting.

Removal of Directors

57. The Members may at any time and from time to time:—

- (1) in accordance with the provisions of s 203D of the Act, remove any appointed or elected Director before the expiration of such Director's period of office provided that the total number of Directors shall not at any time fall below the minimum fixed by this Constitution; and
- (2) elect another person to replace a Director removed in accordance with Article 57(1). The person so elected shall hold office during such time only as the Director in whose place such Director is elected would have held office if such Director had not been removed.

Loss of Office

58. In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant by virtue of the Act, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

- (1) dies or becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
- (2) resigns from office by notice in writing to the Company;
- (3) is absent without the consent of the Directors from two consecutive meetings of the Directors;
- (4) without the consent of the Company in general meeting holds any other office of profit under the Company;
- (5) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and fails to declare the nature of that interest as required by Article 73;
- (6) is expelled or suspended as a Member in accordance with Articles 19 or 20.

Defects in Appointment of Directors

59. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director are, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of a person to be a Director or a member of the committee, or to act as, a Director, or that a person so appointed was disqualified, as valid as if the person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director or to be a member of the committee.

Remuneration of Directors

60. A Director shall be entitled to receive:—

- (1) reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred in carrying out the duties of a director where the payment does not exceed the amount previously approved by the Board; or
- (2) payment for any service rendered to the Company in a professional or technical capacity where the provision of that service has the prior approval of the Board and the amount payable is approved by a resolution of the Board and is on reasonable commercial terms; or
- (3) payment as an employee of the Company where the terms of employment have been approved by resolution of the Board.

but shall not be entitled to any remuneration as a Director of the Company.

Powers and Duties of Directors

- 61.
- (1) Subject to the Act and to any other provision of this Constitution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and forming the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Act or by this Constitution, required to be exercised by the Company in meeting of the Company's Members.
  - (2) Without limiting the generality of Article 61(1), the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to charge any property or business of the Company and to issue debentures or give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.

- (3) The Directors shall obtain the advice of appropriately qualified or experienced people as and when the Directors consider it necessary, and may invite any such person to attend and participate in discussions at meetings of the Directors but not to vote at such meetings.
62. (1) The Directors may, by power of attorney, appoint any person or persons (either by name or by reference to position or office held) to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes, with such powers, authorities and discretions (being powers, authorities and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Directors), for such period and subject to such conditions as they think fit.
- (2) Any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with the attorney as the Directors think fit and may also authorise the attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.
63. All cheques, promissory notes, bankers drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for money paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed by at least two persons as determined by the Directors, one of whom shall be the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Secretary or Treasurer.

Delegation of Powers

64. (1) The Directors may delegate any of their powers to a committee or committees consisting of such of their number as they think fit.
- (2) A committee to which any powers have been so delegated shall exercise the powers delegated in accordance with any directions of the Directors and a power so exercised shall be deemed to have been exercised by the Directors.
- (3) The members of such a committee may elect one of their number as Chairman of their meetings.
- (4) Where such a meeting is held and:-
- (a) a Chairman has not been elected as provided by Article 64(3); or
  - (b) the person so elected is not present within ten (10) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act for all or part of the meeting,
- the members present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting or part of it.
- (5) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper.
- (6) Questions arising at a meeting of a committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting.
- (7) In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall not have a casting vote in addition to any vote the Chairman may have in the capacity as a committee member.

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Frequency of Board Meetings

65. The Board of Directors may meet together for the despatch of business and adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, provided that such meetings are held no less than twice in each calendar year.

Convening Board Meetings

66. The Board of Directors may at any time, and a Secretary shall on the written requisition of two Directors (such requisition to set out the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting), convene a meeting of the Directors by giving no less than twenty-one (21) days written notice of such meeting.

Quorum for Board Meetings

67. At a meeting of the Directors, the number of Directors whose presence is necessary to constitute a quorum is such number as is from time to time determined by the Directors and, unless so determined, is 3 Directors appointed in accordance with Article 51(1), provided that each such person is a Director or an Alternate Director and is entitled under the Act to vote on a motion that may be moved at that meeting.

Chairman of Board Meetings

68. (1) The Directors shall elect one of their number as Chairman and another of their number as Deputy Chairman of its meetings and determine the period for which such Chairman or Deputy Chairman is to hold office.
- (2) Where a meeting of the Directors is held and:-
- (a) a Chairman or a Deputy Chairman has not been elected as provided by Article 68(2); or
  - (b) the person so appointed or elected is not present within ten (0) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act for all or part of the meeting, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting or part of it.

Voting At Board Meetings

69. (1) Subject to this Constitution, questions arising at a meeting of Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes of Directors present and voting and any such decision shall for all purposes be deemed a decision of the Directors.
- (2) In a case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to any vote the Chairman may have in the capacity as a Director.

Electronic Meetings of Directors

70. (1) Without limiting the generality of Article 65, a meeting of Directors may be called or held using any technology consented to by all the Directors. A consent of a Director for the purposes of this Article may be a standing one. A Director may only withdraw his consent within a reasonable time before the meeting of Directors.
- (2) For the purposes of this Constitution, the contemporaneous linking together by an instantaneous communication device of a number of Directors not less than the quorum, whether or not any one or more of the Directors is out of Australia, shall be deemed to constitute a meeting of the Directors and all the provisions of this Constitution as to meetings of the Directors shall apply to any such meeting held by an instantaneous communication device so long as the following conditions are met:-
- (a) All the Directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of the meeting of Directors (including any alternate for any Director) shall be entitled to notice of a meeting held by an instantaneous communication device and to be linked by an instantaneous communication device for the purpose of such meeting. Notice of any such meeting shall be given on the instantaneous communication device or in any other manner permitted by this Constitution; and
- (b) Each of the Directors taking part in the meeting by an instantaneous communication device must be able to hear each other of the Directors taking part at the commencement of the meeting.
- (3) A Director may not leave a meeting held by an instantaneous communication device by disconnecting his instantaneous communication device unless he has previously expressly notified the Chairman of the meeting of his intention to leave the meeting and a Director shall be conclusively presumed to have been present and to have formed part of the quorum at all times during such a meeting until such notified time of his leaving the meeting.
- (4) A minute of the proceedings at meetings held by an instantaneous communication device shall be sufficient evidence of such proceeding and of the observance of all necessary formalities if certified as a correct minute by the Chairman of the meeting.
- (5) For the purpose of this Article “instantaneous communication device” shall include telephone, television or any other audio and/or visual device which permits instantaneous communication.

Circulating Resolutions

71. If all the Directors entitled to vote on a resolution have signed a document containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution of the Directors in terms set out in the document, a resolution in those terms shall be deemed to have been passed at a meeting of the Directors held on the day on which the document was signed and at the time at which the document was last signed by a Director or, if the Directors signed the document on different days, on the day on which, and at the time at which, the document was last signed by a Director.
72. For the purposes of Article 71, two or more separate documents containing statements in identical terms each of which is signed by one or more Directors shall together be deemed to constitute one document containing a statement in those terms signed by those Directors on the respective days on which they signed the separate document.

Directors' Conflicts of Interest

73. (1) Except where permitted by the Act, a director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors:
- (a) must not be counted in a quorum;
  - (b) must not vote on the matter; and
  - (c) must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting.
- (2) If a director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of the directors is not prohibited by the Act from being present at the meeting and voting, the director may be present, be counted in the quorum and may be heard but may not vote on the matter.
- (3) A director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Company must, as soon as practicable after the relevant facts have come to the director's knowledge, declare the nature of the interest at a meeting of the directors or by written notice to the secretary of the Company.
- (4) A director who holds any office or possesses any property by which, whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his or her duties or interests as director must declare at a meeting of the directors of the Company or by written notice to the secretary of the Company the fact and the nature, character and extent of the conflict.
- (5) For the purposes of Articles 73(3) and 73(4), a director's interest or any conflict must be disregarded if it arises from or relates solely to:
- (a) a guarantee to be given by the director (or by persons including the director or by a body corporate of which the director is a member or officer) in respect of a loan to the Company; or
  - (b) the position of the director as a director of a related body corporate.
- (6) Without limiting Article 73 a director may to the extent permitted by the Act:
- (a) hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of auditor) in conjunction with the office of director;
  - (b) be interested in any operation, undertaking or business undertaken or assisted by the Company or in which the Company is or may be interested.

INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY OF APPLICABLE PERSONS

Applicable Persons

75. The provisions of Articles 76, 77, 78 and 79 shall apply to Applicable Persons, which expression shall include:—
- (1) every person who is or has been an Officer of the Company;

- (2) every person who is or has been an Officer of a Related Body Corporate of the Company;
- (3) if the Directors determine, an employee or former employee of the Company or a Related Body Corporate of the Company;
- (4) if the Directors determine and to the extent permitted under the Act, an auditor or former auditor of the Company or a Related Body Corporate of the Company.

Insurance

76. (1) To the extent permitted under the Act, the Company may pay, or agree to pay, a premium in respect of a contract insuring any one or more Applicable Persons against any liability incurred by the Applicable Person PROVIDED THAT the liability does not arise out of conduct involving:–
- (a) a wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company or a Related Body Corporate of the Company; or
  - (b) a contravention of section 182 or 183 of the Act.
- (2) To the extent permitted under the Act, the Company may pay, or agree to pay, an Applicable Person for costs and expenses incurred by that Applicable Person in defending proceedings, whatever the outcome of the proceedings.

Indemnity

77. (1) The Company does not exempt an Applicable Person from a liability to the Company incurred in their capacity as an Applicable Person.
- (2) To the extent permitted by the Act, the Company indemnifies any Applicable Person against non legal costs incurred as an Applicable Person except:–
- (a) for a liability owed to the Company or a Related Body Corporate of the Company;
  - (b) for a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under section 1317G or compensation order under section 1317H or section 1317HA of the Act;
  - (c) for a liability owed to a third party arising out of conduct involving a lack of good faith.
- (3) To the extent permitted by the Act, the Company indemnifies any Applicable Person against legal costs incurred in defending an action for a liability incurred as an Applicable Person except:–
- (a) in defending or resisting proceedings in which the Applicable Person is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under Article 77(2); or
  - (b) in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the Applicable Person is found guilty; or
  - (c) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (and any of its successors) or a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by a court to have been established; or

- (d) in connection with proceedings for relief to the Applicable Person under the Act in which the Court denies relief.
- (4) Where the costs and expenses incurred by an Applicable Person under Articles 77(1), 77(2) or 77(3) are recovered by the Company under an insurance policy taken out or paid for by the Company pursuant to Article 76, the extent of the indemnification of an Applicable Person shall be reduced accordingly.

Loan to an Applicable Person

- 78. (1) To the extent permitted by the Act, the Directors may give a loan or advance to an Applicable Person to assist with the payment of costs and expenses of the Applicable Person which may be incurred under Article 77, where, in the opinion of the Directors, the costs and expenses are likely to become an amount for which the Company may become liable.
- (2) If, upon a determination of the proceedings, the costs and expenses for which the loan or advance was given are not the liability of the Company, the loan or advance given to the Applicable Person shall be recoverable according to the terms of the loan or advance.
- 79. In Articles 76, 77 and 78, the term "proceedings" means any proceedings and any appeal in relation to any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, being proceedings in which it is alleged that the Applicable Person has done or omitted to do some act, matter or thing in his capacity under which the person has become an Applicable Person (including proceedings alleging that the Applicable Person was guilty of negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in relation to the Company or a Related Body Corporate).

ADMINISTRATION

Minutes

- 80. The Directors will cause minutes of:-
  - (1) all proceedings and resolutions of meetings of the Company's Members;
  - (2) all proceedings and resolutions of meetings of the Directors, including meetings of a committee of Directors;
  - (3) resolutions passed by Members without a meeting;
  - (4) resolutions passed by Directors without a meeting, to be duly entered into the books kept for that purpose in accordance with the Act.
- 81. A minute recorded and signed in accordance with the Act is evidence of the proceeding, resolution or declaration to which it relates, unless the contrary is proved.

Inspection of Records

- 82. Books containing the minutes of the Company's Members and resolutions passed by Members without a meeting will be open for inspection by any Member free of charge.

83. Subject to the Act, the Directors shall determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and places and under what conditions, the accounting records and other documents of the Company or any of them will be open to the inspection of Members other than Directors, and a Member other than a Director does not have the right to inspect any document of the Company except as provided by law or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in meeting of the Company's Members.

Execution of Documents

84. (1) The Company may have a Seal, known as the common seal, on which its name, its Australian Company Number and the words "Common Seal" are engraved.
- (2) If the Company has a seal the Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal.
- (3) The Seal shall be used only by the authority of the Directors, or of a committee of the Directors authorised by the Directors to authorise the use of the Seal.
- (4) The Company may execute a document by affixing the Seal to the document where the fixing of the Seal is witnessed by:-
- (a) two Directors; or
  - (b) one Director and one Secretary.

The signature of such persons may be affixed to the document by manual, autographic or mechanical means.

- (5) The Company may execute a document without using a seal if the document is signed by:-
- (a) two Directors; or
  - (b) one Director and one Secretary.
- (6) A facsimile signature may not be affixed to a document unless the auditors, internal auditors or bankers of the Company have reported to the Board in writing that the document may be sealed in that manner.

Creation, Amendment and Repeal of By Laws

85. The Board has power to make By Laws concerning membership application and qualification for membership of the Company and any other matter which the Board believes suitable for including in such By Laws.

Amendment of Constitution

86. (1) If the Company is exempt of tax under Division 50 of the Tax Act, the Commissioner of Taxation must be notified in writing of any alterations to this constitution.

Notices

87. (1) A notice may be given by the Company to any Member either:-

- (a) by serving it on him personally;
  - (b) by sending it by post to him at his address as shown in the Register or to the Service Address supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notices to him.
- (2) Where a notice is sent by:—
- (a) post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effective by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected, in the case of a notice of a Member, on the day after the date of its posting and, in any other case, at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
  - (b) by facsimile transmission, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected within twenty four (24) hours of the transmission, unless the Company receives notification that the transmission was not successful.
  - (c) by electronic transmission, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected within twenty four (24) hours of the transmission, unless the Company receives notification that the transmission was not successful.
- (3) A notice may be given by the Company to joint Members by giving the notice to the joint Member first named in the Register.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Application of Income and Property

88. (1) The income and property of the Company however derived will be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company as set out in this Constitution, and no portion of the income or the property of the Company will be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to Members of the Company.
- (2) Nothing in this Constitution shall prevent the payment in good faith:—
- (a) of the payments contained in Articles 60 hereof;
  - (b) payment of insurance premiums to the extent permitted by the Act; and
  - (c) indemnification to the extent permitted by the Act and this Constitution.

Dividends and Reserves

89. No payment of dividends or other distributions to Members shall be made.

Accounts

90. The Directors will cause to be kept proper books of account in which will be kept true and complete accounts of the affairs and transactions of the Company. Proper books will not be deemed to be kept unless the books give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and explain its transactions.

Audit

91. (1) A registered company auditor must be appointed if required by the Tax Act or the Act as the case may be.
- (2) The remuneration of the auditor must be fixed and the auditor's duties regulated in accordance with the Tax Act or the Act as the case may be.
